

ARE you sick and tired of seeing your wrinkles every morning? Want effective and hassle-free solutions? Then Frownies could very well be your answer.

Forget Botox or cosmetic surgery. Frownies, facial pads made from natural, skin-friendly materials, are your natural and pain-free solution for both men and women.

Touted as Hollywood's best kept "secret", Frownies are applied to the forehead, corners of the eyes and mouth to gently re-educate the underlying muscles and reduce wrinkles. Invented in 1889, they have been extensively used by Hollywood celebrities and make-up professionals as an effective, safe and natural wrinkle reducer.

Frownies was kept a beauty secret amongst the Hollywood elite until gorgeous and age-defying actress Rene Russo revealed during a magazine interview that she opted for a simple but ingenious solution over Botox or cosmetic surgery to keep her youthful looks.

Continuous, repetitive motions such as frowning, squinting and smiling cause wrinkle damage to facial tissue supporting the epidermis.

Over time, facial wrinkles deepen and facial cells slow down production of elastin and collagen, causing heavy facial sagging and deep wrinkles.

Frownies anti-ageing facial pads correct these wrinkles as they work from the root of the wrinkle problem. Simple and easy to use, Frownies are very light, unbleached paper covered with a natural plant-based adhesive that will not cause any discomfort when you wear them. They train facial muscles by forming a splint. This holds facial muscles flat and smooth overnight while skin cells reposition themselves. Gradually, muscles assume their natural relaxed positions and wrinkles are reduced.

Don't fret over wrinkles

Easy solution:
Just by placing Frownies, special facial pads, one can reduce wrinkles.

Visible and temporary improvement in wrinkles and creases can be seen instantly after using Frownies overnight. After about three weeks of continuous use, more permanent results will be shown. Frownies need to be worn for at least three to four hours a day so it is ideal to wear them overnight. Results differ, depending on the depth and extent of wrinkles. The more often you use them, the better the results.

One of the best things about Frownies is its price. A pack of 144 pads can last you about two months and are affordably priced at RM128.
